The Brown County Home Builders Association (BCHBA), representing nearly 700 members of the Wisconsin homebuilding industry, has endorsed the following candidates for the November 2014 election, believing these candidates to be pro-housing and willing to work to benefit the housing industry. BCHBA's membership includes builders, subcontractors, suppliers, manufacturers, lenders and other businesses throughout northeastern Wisconsin.

Scott Walker, Governor
Rebecca Kleefisch, Lieutenant Governor
Reid Ribble, US Representative District 8
Frank Lasee, State Senate District 1
Joel Kitchens, State Assembly District 1
André Jacque, State Assembly District 2
David Steffen, State Assembly District 4
Jim Steineke, State Assembly District 5
John Macco, State Assembly District 88
John Nygren, State Assembly District 89
Eric Genrich, State Assembly District 90

“These candidates are the type of leaders we need in Washington and Madison to reduce the size and scope of federal and state government by getting spending under control and creating jobs. We need to move the economy forward” said BCHBA President, Jill Hendricks, owner of Vision Realty & Development in Little Chute, WI. I’m proud to announce the endorsement of these candidates by our builder and associate members and I look forward to working with newly-elected leaders to scale back government taxes and regulation. Together we’ll build a better Wisconsin.”
